

NOTICE

Effective April 10, 2007, a new policy on camera phones in the courthouse was approved by the Courts. The following are allowed to bring camera phones into the courthouse:

Members of the Bar – Attorneys who display a Bar identification card or other proof of membership of the Bar of the Court of Appeals, District Court, or D.C. Bar.

Jurors – Jurors who display a juror summons or juror pass issued by the Jury Office.

Members of the Media – Members of the media who are credentialed by either Court or who are credentialed by another Federal or D.C. government entity (including the Supreme Court, Congress, a Federal agency, or the D.C. government).

Parole Commission Hearing Examiners – Individuals who display credentials as Parole Commission hearing examiners are permitted to bring into the courthouse camera phones and recording equipment used to record hearings.

Unauthorized use of the camera function inside the courthouse could result in confiscation and possible contempt of court.
